

Dr. Thomas Osinowo is a Board Certified General & Forensic psychiatrist. He is the medical director of Northwest Ohio Psychiatric Hospital (NOPH), formerly (NBH-Toledo) since July 2004. He is a member of various committees within Ohio Dept. of Mental Health (ODMH) and he is the medical director of the forensic service line of the department.

Dr. Osinowo received his MD degree from the College of Medicine, University of Ibadan, Nigeria in 1987. He did his residency program in psychiatry at the University of London England and he also obtained a Masters degree in Mental Health Administrative Studies in 1999 from there. He completed a second general psychiatry residency at the Southern Illinois University in Springfield, Illinois had his forensic psychiatric fellowship at the University of Massachusetts in Worcester, MA.

Dr. Osinowo is an assistant professor of psychiatry at the University of Toledo School of medicine. He has been a board member of the MACC since 2006. In addition he is a member of various professional organizations such as the American Psychiatric Association, The Ohio Psychiatric Physician Association, and The American Academy of Psychiatry and The Law. He is currently the president of The Northwest Ohio Psychiatrists Association (NWOPA).